Spencer,

FRIDAY 11:00pm
8.24.23

Yome waiting for trial that's on Wednesday
for the first time.
I'm watching Benny and Joon. After seeing you
I also messaged Timothy Allen like you asked. & today it felt like a dream again. I didn't know what to do so I went to the store. I got 1lb of dolmas, 8 oz kabogani^ah, and some pesto pasta with the artichokes and bellpeppers.
I got 3 Arizona Iced Teas. That's my favorite summer/road trip beverage after water. Then I got in the car and didn't know what to do. So I went up Skinner's Butte. Had some dolma but I wasn't super hungry. Oh I also got some sardines! 3 cans. 2 in olive oil & one in mustard.
For dessert I had too much ice cream, took a nap, then woke up and finished a 2 day melted Cinnabon cinnamon roll that's been hiding in my purse for ages.

@ the Butte

there was this guy, Yoshi, in a blue Honda Baleno van who was coloring with chalk all over the sidewalk. I'll add some printed photos. I think I can send 10x per envelope. His work looked so happy and joyful. On either side of the van, two separate groups of ppl were fighting. It was so awful. I almost left before coloring the sidewalk. Yoshi played some music to draw them out, I colored and smoked about it. He said when he was in jail, he looked out the window and saw a motivational poster with positive affirmations. Made with chalk, coated with a finishing protective layer. It lasted for a year, the art on the mural's left by the prisoners.

The Purpose of this life is to live a life of purpose

myles awarded: wall of flowers (yotube, music video) features Yoshi's sidewalk art. (wall full of flowers)

humm. I think somehow our second video call got cancelled. Maybe someone else got that slot? It's okay though. I'll see you tomorrow. I hope I can make you smile. I pick green. You like green and all the colors. This weekend I'll see it I can look into your works a bit deeper. There's so much to unpack. A whole life's worth. When I have some actual money, I'll be able to print you some photos. I also want to send you some books. Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens. It's in your archives... have you actually read it? It's one of my favorites. You called! You have read it. Sidenote: I really don't love how we have to pay to communicate.

③ though we couldn't make the video chat. I love you thank you
I love to hear your voice too. Thank you for calling me even

MONDAY

5/8 10:55pm

I couldn't find Archer just now and I started to have a panic attack. I was terrified he ate a spider and died in the HVAC system.

He was outside. I loved seeing you today. I'm really hoping you get to stay in town so I can visit you still. Tomorrow we find out what's going with your trial.

Hey. I'm sorry I hurt you. I'd really like to talk to you about it. As beautiful as our time was, I think it was as equally hard. It was a very challenging adventure. I'll never forget the experience. I'm sorry I have a bad memory. I've been trying really hard to remember the important things. It's hard when everything is equally important.

Im Sorry Spencer
Im working on it.

5/9 TUES

Hey honey. You were found guilty. I'm so sorry.

I'll ~~visit~~ visit you tomorrow. Hopefully I can keep in touch with you as much as possible.

We both have so much going on. I'm just grateful we're both safe and dry at night.

I wish we were still camping. Our little car home.

I wanted to fill this last page with pretty things.

I just want you to have something to open at this point. I'm sorry it took me so long to get this to you.

I'll do my best to be here for you as much as I can be. I know I'm forgetful but Spencer, I'll never forget you.

You are in my heart forever. We created the most beautiful magic together. The magic breath that we made is unforgettable. I will always want to kiss your face. I miss you so so much.

With the love and light in my heart and soul,
I send this letter to you,

Spencer Joseph Prunetto

♡ Dandelions & Cherry Blossoms always return. 7:46pm

Hey. I love you.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp, biting cold that seemed to penetrate my coat. I shivered as I walked towards the entrance of the building. The air was thick with the scent of old wood and the faint, sweet smell of flowers. I had heard that the house was beautiful, but I had no idea how grand it would be. The entrance was a large, arched doorway with a high ceiling. The walls were covered in intricate carvings and the floor was made of polished stone. I was led to a large, ornate room with a high ceiling and a large fireplace. The room was filled with people, some of whom I recognized from the party. I felt a little out of place, but I tried to blend in. I was talking to a group of people when I noticed a man in a tuxedo looking at me. He was a stranger, but he seemed to know me. He came over and introduced himself. His name was John. He was a friend of the host. We talked for a while and then he asked me to dance. I was a little nervous, but I agreed. We danced for a few minutes and then he asked me to go outside. We walked out onto the terrace and looked at the view. The house was surrounded by a large garden with many flowers. The view was beautiful. I was having a good time. I was talking to John when I noticed a woman in a red dress looking at me. She was a stranger, but she seemed to know me. She came over and introduced herself. Her name was Mary. She was a friend of the host. We talked for a while and then she asked me to dance. I was a little nervous, but I agreed. We danced for a few minutes and then she asked me to go outside. We walked out onto the terrace and looked at the view. The house was surrounded by a large garden with many flowers. The view was beautiful. I was having a good time.

I am writing to you from the hospital. I am feeling better but still have a lot of pain.
 I hope you are well and happy. I will be home soon.

BIBLES

We have many Bibles available for you to use while you are here. If there is a certain version or translation you are hoping for, let us know, and if we have it on hand we will provide it. We can supply Recovery Bibles for those who would appreciate the extra side notes for addition issues. Also, we have the New Testament New Believer's Bibles that have many notes and explanations.

Any of the Gideon's Bibles are available for you while here at the Lane County Jail. These are the brown pocket-sized New Testament Bibles and the full-size Blue Gideon Bibles, which include both the Old and New Testaments. If none of these are available in your area let us know.

You also have an opportunity to go through a series of Bible Study Courses provided by Gospel Echoes. There are 8 Courses available and you may request up to 2 courses at a time. These have really blessed so many of the AIC's, starting with the 1st course and many have completed all 8.

If you want to do these, request them by a kite to the Chaplain. After you do each study complete the removable center section, pull it out and return it to us in a kite. We will send these in to Gospel Echoes volunteers, who will respond to your questions and will also be praying for you.

If you are transferred before completing the Course series, you can still finish it by corresponding directly with Gospel Echoes, and letting them know of your change of address*.

Gospel Echoes Address is: Gospel Echoes, PO Box 255, Tualatin, OR 97389.

You can earn your very own Award Bible with Your Name on it in Gold after you have completed the first 4 courses. If you do complete the first 4 courses but will not be released from here, Gospel Echoes can hold your Award Bible for you until you arrive at your final prison destination.

► For those going on to prison who'd like a Large Print Recovery Bible in English or Spanish, write

Tyndale House Publishers
Ins de Journa Bible
351 Executive Drive
Carol Stream, IL 60188

*Be sure to include your Name, prison ID number, Institution and Address, and let them know if you would prefer English or Spanish. We recommend recording this contact information (and the Gospel Echoes' contact info) in the Little Red Address Book, which we understand you are allowed to take with you when you are either transferred or released.

If somehow you lose this information, you can always write us c/o the Chaplain's Office here at Lane County Adult Corrections, 101 West 5th Street, Eugene, OR 97401, or you can write to us at Jubilee Ministries, PO Box 935, Eugene, OR 97440.

By the way: The Bible is the BIGGEST Seller of ALL TIME! We encourage you to always Pray before you read it, asking the Lord to explain it to you — He is the Author, and He will certainly do it!

almost didn't make it up Sand hill thing. Bout to go to Diner (stopped outside) She tells me that wasn't the real Joyce I met and I turn to see Taylor in Back seat, eyes look different - then when we go in Diner Becca is embarrassed ashamed & she glares for her letting me suck her tit, I say not to worry but she does (unusual for her)...
The other dream I remember from last night was Aubrey Fitzgerald showing me her multi ple (4? breasts) and letting me gently examine and touch them like the lips of a vagina?
She said she had to leave me when I asked where her wings went (they looked cut off) as we drove through a very large nameless communal spot in the Desert, I woke up thinking that Natalie (won blanked on our name for a while :-)) was speaking through Aubrey - which reminds me of our first Date and my leaving behind a gift of a flower because now I plucked it, the stem no longer there and all the petals would have fallen off - I was gonna give her the flower but it was just falling apart and I was so superstitious I didn't want to not have our relationship fall apart - I was so nervous it was which was weird about it because I'm sure she would have enjoyed it - at the petals... Main dream from Monday night - note was flying a plane on a highway? trying to lift off? first downhill around a corner, he split the plane perfectly in half (saving him by means of a tree... then after I got out I stood tried to attack me in a sense but ended up hitting him self. I'd have been consistently giving Allison the Benefit of the Doubt despite numerous examples of her forgetfulness regarding my access to, Hatesas Co. and

This Notice is important. Read it carefully. It provides you with specific information about your case, your attorney, your court case number, the offense you are charged with, and the date and time of any pending court appearance.

You Have Rights. You need to be aware of your rights and assert them. You have the right to remain silent, to refuse to answer questions or to refuse to talk about your case. Assert that right. Always ask for a lawyer. If the police try to question you, tell them you do not want to talk to them unless your lawyer is here with you. This is your right and it is important to your case. Never give permission or approval to the police for a search of your home, your vehicle or yourself. If they search even after you tell them they may not, do not physically resist. Be sure that the police know you have not given your permission. Do not talk about your case with family, friends or fellow prisoners. They can be forced to testify against you and this can hurt your case. You should only talk about your case with your attorney or an investigator or legal assistant who works for the Public Defender.

If You Change Your Address or Telephone Number. You must call the Public Defender office immediately (541-484-2611), and report any new address or telephone number. It is very important that your attorney be able to reach you to keep you informed about your case and about upcoming court appearances.

Sentencing. You are scheduled to appear in court to be sentenced on the charges involved in this case. Your attorney will appear with you to assist you, give you information, and speak to the court on your behalf.

You have a Court Appearance scheduled. You are scheduled for a court appearance on the date and time shown on this notice. You must appear, or a warrant will be issued for your arrest. A court appearance is required for you to be sentenced on the charges involved in this case. If you do have questions about this court appearance or anything else about this case, call your attorney.

If you do not appear in court on the required day and time, you could also be charged with the crime of Failure to Appear.

If you have questions about this hearing or your case, please contact your attorney as soon as possible at 541-484-2611, Ext. 135.

(5/17) the fact someone walked in w/ a video camera chest mount as I handed off my letter for Natalie was kinda cool.. hope she gets it. Even though speaking w/ her can fill me w/ fear and doubt and confusion I still want to, and escaped those emotions not by reading the bible (acts 15:24-29 & Psalm 59 which I "channeled") but by singing "War Chieft" QUANAH PARKER by Bill Dugan and remembering that the message I'm going through now is nothing new to so many other oppressed parties / cultures. This Notice is important. Read it carefully. It provides you with specific information about your case, your attorney, your court case number, the offense you are charged with, and the date and time of any pending court appearance.

You Have Rights. You need to be aware of your rights and assert them. You have the right to remain silent, to refuse to answer questions or to refuse to talk about your case. Ask for this right. Always ask for a lawyer. If the police try to question you, tell them you do not want to talk to them unless your lawyer is there with you. This is your right and it is important to your case. Never give permission or approval to the police for a search of your home, your vehicle or yourself. If any search even after you tell them they may not, do not physically resist. Be sure that the police know you have not given your permission. Do not talk about your case with family, friends or fellow prisoners. They can be asked to testify against you later and this can hurt your case. You should only talk about your case with your attorney or an investigator or legal assistant who works for the Public Defender.

If You Change Your Address or Telephone Number You must call the Public Defender office immediately, 541-484-2611, and report any new address or telephone number. It is very important that your attorney be able to reach you to keep you informed about your case and about upcoming court appearances.

You Have a Voluntary Court Appearance Scheduled. You are scheduled to appear in court on the date and time shown on this notice. You must appear there. If a warrant will be issued for your arrest. As your attorney prepares for your case, our office will be talking to witnesses, investigating the circumstances surrounding your case and gathering evidence to be used on your behalf. We may also contact you for more information if we need it. If you believe you have information that you think might be useful, or if you have questions about your case, you can call our office and talk with your attorney.

If you do not appear in court on the required date and time, you could also be charged with the crime of Failure to Appear.

If you have questions about this notice or your case, please contact your attorney as soon as possible at 541-484-2611, Ext.135.

1/18 talking about asking Natalie to marry me, polysexual amorality, parsexuality, not identifying w/ sex, love is not always sexual such as before we reach puberty - and identifying w/ that creative spirit instead of the very polluted/sad/lost generation who have been so neglected and w/ out higher motivation/interests/self-mastery (due to poor, abusive parenting and government styles) that they at a lower state of consciousness cannot distinguish between the two. To remind and ensure we do not infect (needlessly train addiction) but build authentic community and "higher order" personalities.
 Now it may be that some will completely resist any attempts and wish to identify w/ criminality and forego all creative, intrinsic endeavors. But there is a natural resistance to authority, exercising free-will/choice and to educate on the employment of reversal psychology as well as the benefits and greater freedoms that come w/ self-mastery.
 Ultimately giving you more free-will and less chance for control/blain-washing/enslavement) // What is really bothering me right now is Allison's blatant disregard and obvious conflict of interests, and it's weird I can continue to give lip service to someone who is obviously not listening/believing or looking for something else. To give them my attention w/ out words, to put them back in a mode of self reflection instead of deceptive projection. For their own personal development, but their resistance & disbelief is to be expected as well as using this

"At least I am being fair by letting all use and have access to this screen of consciousness and development and reception or deflection instead of the few and overwhelming catholics and wish and have succeeded in dominating and manipulating the world and others up it; selfishly and protestingly. A problem w/ not being able to interrupt is that by the time someone is done talking they have literally stolen all the air out of the room, literally taking your breath away and if it is perceived they are dissembling or creating false narrative where the energy is to be used w/ a much more subtle and subtle and more subtle and more subtle and more subtle and more subtle and more subtle and its sort of machine/reluctance and regardless of what the fact in time matter or deserving of it, if I am not allowed to interrupt a lengthy dialogue or have unanswered questions, do not gain as much or learn as much if I am not able to partake. Now it is assumed that the makers (who are actually sitting in a cold narrative and dialogue) mischievously and w/ ill intent interrupt as a matter of distraction, deflection and denial of responsibility. So long as real accountability is considered and it is apparent that both parties are willing to take responsibility (win-win) then there should be no rush or personal grudge or motivation to alter in any international relations.

Petition for Relief From a Conviction or Sentence
By a Person in State Custody

(Petition Under 28 U.S.C. § 2254 for a Writ of Habeas Corpus)

Instructions

- 1 To use this form, you must be a person who is currently serving a sentence under a judgment against you in a state court. You are asking for relief from the conviction or the sentence. This form is your petition for relief.
- 2 You may also use this form to challenge a state judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, but you must fill in the name of the state where the judgment was entered. If you want to challenge a federal judgment that imposed a sentence to be served in the future, you should file a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 in the federal court that entered the judgment.
- 3 Make sure the form is typed or neatly written.
- 4 You must tell the truth and sign the form. If you make a false statement of a material fact, you may be prosecuted for perjury.
- 5 Answer all the questions. You do not need to cite law. You may submit additional pages if necessary. If you do not fill out the form properly, you may be asked to submit additional or correct information. If you want to submit any legal arguments, you should submit a separate memorandum. Be aware that any such memorandum may be subject to page limits set by the court where you file the petition.
- 6 You must pay a fee of $5. If the fee is paid, your petition will be filed. If you cannot pay the fee, you may ask to proceed in forma pauperis (as a poor person). But that you must fill out the last page of this form. Also, you must submit a certificate signed by an officer at the institution where you are confined showing the amount of money that the institution is holding for you. If your account exceeds $_____, you must pay the filing fee.
- 7 In this petition, you may challenge the judgment entered by only one court. If you want to challenge a judgment entered by a different court (either in the same state or in different states), you must file a separate petition.
- 8 When you have completed the form, send the original and _____ copies to the Clerk of the United States District Court at this address:

Clerk, United States District Court for Address
City, State Zip Code

If you want a file-stamped copy of the petition, you must enclose an additional copy of the petition and ask the court to file-stamp it and return it to you.

- 9 CALUTION: You must include in this petition all the grounds for relief from the conviction or sentence that you challenge. And you must state the facts that support each ground. If you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.
- 10 CAPITAL CASES: If you are under a sentence of death, you are entitled to the assistance of counsel and should request the appointment of counsel.

POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

138.510 Persons who may file petition for relief; time limit. (1) Except as otherwise provided in ORS 138.540, any person convicted of a crime under the laws of this state may file a petition for post conviction relief pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680

(2) A petition for post-conviction relief may be filed by one person on behalf of another person who has been convicted of aggravated murder and sentenced to death only if the person filing the petition demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The person sentenced to death is unable to file a petition on the person's own behalf due to mental incapacity or because of a lack of access to the court, and

(b) The person filing the petition has a significant relationship with the person sentenced to death and will act in the best interest of the person on whose behalf the petition is being filed

(3) A petition pursuant to ORS 138.510 to 138.680 must be filed within two years of the following, unless the court on hearing a subsequent petition finds grounds for relief asserted which could not reasonably have been raised in the original or amended petition:

(a) If no appeal is taken, the date the judgment or order on the conviction was entered in the register.

(b) If an appeal is taken, the date the appeal is final in the Oregon appellate courts.

(c) If a petition for certiorari to the United States Supreme Court is filed, the later of

(A) The date of denial of certiorari, if the petition is denied, or

(B) The date of entry of a final state court judgment following remand from the United States Supreme Court.

(4) A one-year filing period shall apply to petitions filed by persons whose convictions and appeals became final before August 1, 1993. Such petitions must be filed within one year after November 4, 1993. A person whose post-conviction petition was dismissed prior to November 4, 1993, cannot file another post-conviction petition involving the same case.

(5) The remedy created by ORS 138.510 to 138.680 is available to persons convicted before May 26, 1959

(6) In any post-conviction proceeding pending in the courts of this state on May 26, 1959, the person seeking relief in such proceedings shall be allowed to amend the action and seek relief under ORS 138.510 to 138.680. If such person does not choose to amend the action in this manner, the law existing prior to May 26, 1959, shall govern the case. [1959 c.636 §§1,16,17; 1989 c.1053 §18, 1993 c.517 §1, 1999 c.1055 §7; 2007 c.292 §1]

138.520 Relief which court may grant. The relief which a court may grant or order under ORS 138.510 to 138.680 shall include release, new trial, modification of sentence, and such other relief as may be proper and just. The court may also make supplementary orders to the relief granted, concerning such matters as rearraignment, retrial, custody and release on security. [1959 c.636 §2; 1999 c.1051 §258]

138.525 Dismissal of meritless petition. (1) The court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the defendant, enter a judgment denying a meritless petition brought under ORS 138.510 to 138.680.

(2) As used in this section, "meritless petition" means one that, when liberally construed, fails to state a claim upon which post-conviction relief may be granted.

(3) Notwithstanding ORS 138.650, a judgment dismissing a meritless petition is not appealable

(4) A dismissal is without prejudice if a meritless petition is dismissed without a hearing and the petitioner was not represented by counsel. [1993 c.517 §3]

Congress OKs prison-repair mandate

Michael R. Sisak
ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON Congress has passed legislation requiring the Federal Bureau of Prisons to overhaul failing and outdated security systems in the wake of rampant staff sexual abuse, inmate escapes and high-profile deaths.

The bill approved by the House on a voice vote Wednesday would force the troubled prison agency to fix broken surveillance cameras and install new ones, providing upgraded tools to fight and investigate staff misconduct, inmate violence and other problems.

The Prison Camera Reform Act, which the Senate passed last year, now goes to President Joe Biden to be signed into law.

"Broken prison camera systems are enabling corruption, misconduct and abuse" said the bill's sponsor, Sen. Jon Ossoff D-Ga. He has led multiple investigations of crime and corruption in federal prisons as chairman of the Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations part of the Senate Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs Committee.

The bipartisan legislation would require the Bureau of Prisons to evaluate and enhance security camera, radio and public address systems at its 122 facilities. The agency must submit a report to Congress within three months detailing ing deficiencies and a plan to make needed upgrades. Those upgrades are required within three years and the bureau must submit annual progress reports to lawmakers.

Failing and inadequate security cameras have allowed inmates to escape from federal prisons and hampered investigations. They were an issue in the deaths of gangster James "Whitey" Bulger at a federal prison in West Virginia in 2018 and financier Jeffrey Epstein at a federal jail in New York City in 2019.

Cameras captured inmates going into Bulger's cell, but not the assault that ended his life due to limitations on how they can be positioned.

In Epstein's case, some cameras malfunctioned while others revealed that guards failed to make some required half-hourly checks, and footage of his apparent suicide attempt a few weeks earlier was lost "as a result of technical errors," prosecutors said.

The House vote came just a day after Ossoff's subcommittee heard testimony from three formerly incarcerated women who said staff abused them in areas of federal prisons that lacked cameras.

The Justice Department's internal watchdog testified that deficiencies with security cameras in federal prisons have "compromised investigations into such ills as sexual assault, the introduction of contraband, violations of civil rights and inmate deaths." The inspector general, Michael Horowitz, noted that cameras are also integral to disproving false allegations.

In introducing the camera bill last year, Ossoff said that blind spots, lost footage and technical failures were unacceptable. He said federal prisons "must be cleaned up and held to the highest standards."

The legislation also had the backing of the leaders of the Senate Judiciary Committee: the chairman, Sen. Dick Durbin, D-Il., and the top Republican, Iowa Sen. Chuck Grassley.
